CHEMICAL REPORTS. GRANVILLE H. SHARPE, F.C.S., Analyst, London, late Principal of the Liverpool College of Chemistry, reporting under date 27th Nev. 1899. says:-" I have again submitted to searching Chemical Analysis Sample of THE CHALLENGE Old Highland Whisky, as supplied by Messers ANDERSON & SHAW, Glasgow, and I find it to be a Spirit of High Purity and Excellence, mellow and soft to the taste, delicate and inviting in flavour, an i thoroughly matured. It maintains the same admirable character it possessed when last analysed by me."

STEVENSON MACADAM, Ph., D.F.R.S.E., Lecturer on Chemistry, Edinburgh, says: -The CHALLENGE possesses an excellent bouquet, is highly palatable, and may be confidentially used where a pure wholesome spirit is desired. CAUTION .- As more than one attempt has been made to appropriate our Brand-"THE CHALLENGE"-and having been obliged in one instance to obtain an Interdict from the Supreme Court, and also a Deci-ion of the Comptroller-General, we think it right to warn all l'arties against attempting the like in the future. While we dislike bringing ourselves forward in connection with our Brand in this way, we are led to do it from a desire to save not only ourselves, but even all others from unnecessary Trouble and Expense, and the latter also from Exposure.
